1. We have run a series of name checks through SID files on the individuals whose names appear in referenced document and the following information was developed.

2. RADENSCHEIDER, Fritz - Our files disclosed no information identifiable with Subject.

3. LUPWIS, Sam - We are unable to name check this individual without additional biographic information for purposes of identification, since the firm's are too numerous to check.

4. KAPPE, Reinhard - We were unable to develop any references directly identifiable with Subject. The following references to KAPPE, firm's, may possibly be identifiable with this man:

a. IX-7728 of 25 June 1945 describes one Dr. KAPPE, firm, who was a newspaper in charge of Spanish affairs with Vahr Wirtschaftsstelle VI, Bad Vilgenum, 1945. He was born 1907 (1), is reported as 1.70m tall, heavy set, blond hair, oval face, ruddy complexion, gray eyes, a curved, pointed nose, wears glasses. He was married at the time, a lawyer by profession. He is reported to have spoken perfect Spanish.

b. IX-11831 of 9 May 1945 reveals the existence of one KAPPE, firm, who was an SS Staf., at one time attached to IAS in Dusseldorf. Cited information adds that the Subject was at one time head of the Untersuchungsstelle, IAS, Dusseldorf. In May 1945, one KAPPE, firm, an SS Staf., believed to be the same man, was reported working as a SIF in Hamburg.

a. One KAPPE, fnm, Hacha. NIFO and SA, is reported by a SCHAF Card to have been on the staff of the Friedenthal Sabotage Training School in 1943.

b. IX-1031 of 26 September 1944, indicates that one Lt. KAPPE, fnm, was listed in the telephone directory of Abwehr II in Berlin, 1941. It is believed that this man may have been the KAPPE described in reference paragraph a, or more likely, may have been identical with Lt. Walter KAPPE, who was attached to the American Section of the Abwehr.

5. KAPPE, Werner

a. NMB-2978 of 25 April 1947 reveals that one Werner KAPPE was included on a list of technicians who had been deported to Russia on 23 September 1946 from the Jucker's airplane and motor works at Dessau. His address at time of deportation was Dessau, Engenstrasse 7.

b. NMB-4-6278 of 20 April 1949 includes, among many other KAPPEs, one KAPPE, fnm, on an unconfirmed list of AETIVA personnel in USSR internment camps. The report describes him as leader of Camp 7280/30 at Stalingrad.

6. FOLLME, Rudolf: Our files disclose no information regarding the Subject, although several references to FOLLME, fnm, are listed and may possibly be identifiable with Subject.

a. IX-1608, received 15 December 1944, describes one FOLLME, alias FOLLME, who was an SS-MOB in Brussels in late 1943 and early 1944. At time of report he was described as being approximately 23 years old, of medium height, reddish, blond hair, round face and blue eyes. He was a Volksdeutscher from Hungary or Transylvania, well-educated and probably from a good family. He left Brussels for Budapest in early 1944.

b. IX-1548, received 9 November 1944, corroborates the above description and the evidence that one FOLLME, alias FOLLME, was an SS Schaf. in the SS in Brussels in the winter of 1943-44. The report adds that he wore glasses, spoke German, Hungarian, French, Hungarian and other Balkan languages and gave an impression of elegance.

c. IX-1500 and IX-12836, undated, confirm the above information, adding that FOLLME spoke in a deep voice. He is reported to have been responsible for compiling necessary documentation, such as passports, identity cards, etc., and that he conducted liaison with information agents and between Abt. VI and the Deutsche Bureau.
